A DECISIVE BATTLE OF THE WORLD

(Christian Science Monitor.)
It is essential that, at the present moment, public opinion in the allied countries should remain sane, and not be swept by every success of a moment into premature claims of victory. Military operations are something that the ordinary man does not readily understand, with the result that he is apt to think that a successful battle at some point is necessarily a decisive victory of a war. As a matter of fact, colossal defeats in the field have often been the prelude to ultimate victory. In the case of Kunersdorf and Hocklitz, whilst a series of defeats has sometimes led to the same end, as in the case of the struggles of the Dutch with Spain, William III lost the important battles of Steinkirk and Landen, and saw the fortress of Mons and Namur fall before the victorious troops of the duke of Luxembourg, but in the end he succeeded in signing a peace so advantageous that it paved the way for the long series of victories of all the generals the world has ever seen, the Duke of Marlborough. Nevertheless, it took Marlborough twelve years of constantly victorious campaigning, including the winning of four great battles, to force Louis XIV to sue for peace. Now the interesting feature of the Marlborough campaigns is that the peace of Utrecht was signed in 1713, but the decisive battle of the war, Blenheim, was fought in 1704, whilst all Marlborough's other great victories, Ramillies, Oudenarde, and Malplouquet, were fought and won subsequent to Blenheim. When the present war is over, and it is possible to regard the whole body of campaigns in a true strategic perspective, it will be found in all human probability, that the decisive battle of the war, and so one of the decisive battles of the world, was the first battle of the Marne, fought, when in the autumn of 1914, Marshal Joffre drove the Germans from the gates of Paris.

The Decisive Battle of the War
In precisely the same way the decisive battle of the American War of Independence was, if it may be put that way, the surrender of Burgoyne at Saratoga. That was in 1777, four years before Cornwallis' surrender, six years before the end of the war, but nevertheless as clearly the decisive battle of the war, as it was one of the decisive battles of the world. Realizing this, and realizing something more, that strategy and tactics are a supreme measure of common sense, and can be reduced to a science, reduced by that grand old Scot, Feldmarschall Keitel, to the game which he played with his wooden airplanes, in his garden at Potsdam, it will be well for the Allies, in the weeks that are coming, to regard the movements of the armies with restraint, and with an attempt, if it is worth following, to be quite exact at 6 p. m. on the 23rd of July, 1914, when the Austrian ultimatum, intended to revoke it, was delivered to the Serbian government in Belgrade. It began technically on the 28th day of July, when the Emperor, Franz Josef, ordered complete mobilization of the Austro-Hungarian forces, and declared war against Serbia. It began in the field on the 29th of July, when Belgrade was bombarded. The strategy, which the two plotters, in reality the German General Staff, in the Konigs-Platz, and the Austrian General Staff, in the Platz am Hof, had decided upon, was simply this. The Austrian army and the German troops in East Prussia were to hold up the Russian armies, which it was known, in consequence of the incompleteness of the military railways, would not be able to mobilize as quickly as those of France. The first blow, what was intended to be the "knock out" blow, was to be delivered by the German army, under von Moltke, which were to advance straight upon Paris, and, in seizing it, paralyze the French railway system, and dictate the pace of the campaign. To enable the Konigs-Platz to hurl its surplus battalions from the Vosges to the Meuse for a second triumphal march on Petrograd and Moscow.

Undeterred by Breach of Faith
Had the Konigs-Platz had the courage of its convictions, had it advanced straight upon Verdun and forced the Vosges barrier, the blow might have been executed with a suddenness so complete as to bring about almost a second Seven Weeks' War. The Konigs-Platz, however, quailed, for the moment before something which has never distressed von Hindenburg, the losses which would be entailed in a direct advance on the Meuse. As a consequence of this, it determined to tear up the "scrap of paper", to repudiate its own pledges to Brussels, and to sweep into France by the back door, and to think that it is to say of the French fortresses in the Vosges, across a frontier only weakly fortified, and sparsely held on the strength of the pledges of France and Germany given by themselves to Belgium. The first spoke inserted, in consequence, into the German wheel was that of Belgian resistance, the second of British intervention. Entirely undeterred, however, by this breach of faith, Germany poured her army corps thru Belgium and along the beautiful highway made by the Government of Luxembourg for the attraction of motor tourists, and descended in an ever-converging line on Paris. By the 7th of September the Germans had crossed the Marne at Chateau Thierry, and their extreme right under von Kluck, was at the very gates of Paris. At ten o'clock that night the Konigs-Platz issued its famous order of the day to the German troops. The order which began with the announcement, "The object of our long and arduous marches has been achieved", and which ended with the pregnant words "Everything depends on the result of tomorrow."

The Climax of the Battle
If it was von Moltke who penned that order of the day, he never penned a truer one. Two days before, on Sunday, Marshal Joffre had issued his famous order of the day, which told the French armies that they were going to stand upon the Marne, and that the Germans must be halted there and defeated. Joffre, indeed, had baited his hook very completely. He had pushed the army of General Maunoury round the west of Paris, and was only waiting for him to close the door behind von Kluck, at Meaux, in order to strike with all his force. Today everybody knows how von Kluck took alarm at the last moment, and in a way, so incomprehensible to the non-military world, at the time, swung suddenly away from Paris, in a desperate and masterly effort to save not only his own army corps but the whole army, whilst almost simultaneously von Beulow, nearly trapped by d'Esperey and French, well south of the Marne, below Chateau Thierry, was also compelled to save himself by a precipitate retreat. Next day, the 8th, saw the climax of the great battle. Sir John French and the British blocked the road from Chateau Thierry to Meaux. Far to the right General Foch faced General von Hausen, across the marshes of St. Gond, south-west of Chalons. That night, as the Germans poured back in defeat, the war, no matter what its subsequent developments, had been lost by the Germans. A new decisive battle had been added to the decisive battles of the world, and it had been won by the Konigs-Platz had by no means exaggerated when it declared "Everything depends on the result of tomorrow."

GENEROUS TREATMENT
M. A. Hulet has received a letter from Hildig Martin, a young man in whom he is deeply interested and who enlisted a few weeks ago and is in the vicinity of Kansas City. The young man said one day the ladies of a certain church invited the whole company to attend church and after the services the boys were paraded out among the congregation and invited to dinner. Young Martin fell to a wealthy, hospitable family who lived in an elegant house, had a grand, six course dinner and other things to match but were very sociable and made their stranger guests feel fully at home. It was a very pleasant day in the life of the young men so far from home.

A PLEASANT RESPONSE.
Among the heirs of the late Jeff Kitter is Mrs. J. A. Munse whose husband was for some time a clerk for Frank Byrns at has risen in the business world till now he holds an important position as sales director for the Minneapolis Knitting Co., manufacturers of Munsey underwear. It was necessary to get the signatures of Mr. and Mrs. Munse to a lease for the 320 acres of land belonging to the estate of Mr. Kitter and which will be offered by the proposed daughter, Mrs. Munse, to a lease and returned it with a letter expressing most cordial wishes for the enterprise and willingness to sign the lease and aid the city in any way to get water supply.

REGISTRATION WORK FIGURES COMPILED

Detailed Report Made to State Department by the Chairman—Many Local Workers Made Task Possible.

The committee of women which has directed the registration of Morgan county under direction of the Council of National Defense, has had a large task in the compilation of reports. Mrs. W. P. Duncan, who is chairman of registration work, has been frequently asked what the committee has been doing and what the detailed reports made indicated. It was possible recently for the committee to send to the Chicago office a condensed detailed report covering six type-written pages.

Summary of Workers.
The summary of women trained and untrained for various lines of work follows:

	T'd Utd.
1. Agriculture	1806 83
2. Clerical	1338 30
3. Domestic	2498 606
4. Industrial	528 81
5. Professional	615 4
6. Public service	269 75
7. Social service	614 287
8. Red Cross A. R.	298 200
9. Miscellaneous	42 11
10. Contributions	17

Trained in more than one occupation, 3,000.

The total number of women registered was 7,849, while the poll was 6,049. This means that 1,100 women more than the poll book showed were registered for work.

The number registered on November 7, 1917, was 5,532, and the number registered subsequent to March 2 has been 2,317. The registration at the Red Cross shop March 9; at the food shop March 16 and 17; at the Avers National Bank building, Bethel A. M. E. church and Hopper shoe store March 23 and 30. The county captains or registrars not only held registrations, but conducted personal house to house visitation and great credit is due them for successfully encountering the difficulties of distance and bad roads.

Listing Work Begins.
April 2 the listing committee began its work and all country districts were listed, except Canton, which district was organized later. Each worker was listed as to name, service, time and kind. The lists were mailed by eighteen county captains of registration April 18 and at a date earlier in the same month a committee listed the percentage of girls from 16 to 20 in a number of the county precincts. Figures were also compiled from the colleges, state institutions and a number of factories.

When the listing work began, the committee was industriously busy for more than a week. No names were written, but the time was occupied in securing just the actual count of trained and untrained workers, and the compilation was finished in time to send it to the Chicago headquarters April 19.

Another task which required painstaking care was the compilation of the names of farm workers, trained and untrained, under the head of agriculture, and this report was mailed to Washington April 18, for Mrs. Henry T. Rainey.

In the work of the listing committee all cards were arranged alphabetically as to three letters and filed in cases. That this work required patriotic interest is shown by the fact that there were sixteen women who worked four hours a day and six days a week for a period of four weeks. This means that sixteen women applied themselves for nineteen hours, which would be the equivalent of one woman serving for 1,536 hours. In addition to this work there were 86 girls who assisted, and so the total hours spent at the library alone on the cards was 2,129.

While copies of the various lists have been forwarded to the women's council of national defense, the records remain here for the use of patriotic organizations. Already the Morgan county cards have aided the munitions workers at Alton, the clerical force at the local exemption office and this medical advisory board. The information on the cards will thus be available at all times to government representatives.

The records show that in Jacksonville precincts there were 472, outside of the precincts 383, women who did not register, making a total of 855.

STEAMER JUSTICIA SUNK BY SUBMARINES

From Three to Eight U-Boats Concerned in Attack on Vessel—Ship Gone Down After Nine Torpedoes Had Been Fired.

London, July 24.—From three to eight submarines are said to have been concerned in the attack on the Justicia, according to the Daily Mail which says the ship began at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon and lasted intermittently until Saturday morning.

The ship sank about 1 o'clock in the afternoon after nine torpedoes had been fired. When the liner was first struck the torpedo boats destroyed which accompanied her dropped to attack the enemy and rapped many depth charges, while patrol boats stood by the ship and a tug took her in tow.

The second and third torpedoes were fired about 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Both missed their marks, one going ahead of the steamer and the other aft. Two hours later another torpedo was seen coming but when it got close a gunner on the Justicia with extraordinary aim hit it clean and exploded it. All was quiet until 8 o'clock in the evening when the fifth torpedo was sighted. The gunners on the Justicia placed their shots so near it that the torpedo was deflected.

Saturday morning when toward 8 o'clock the gunners again were hard at work as the sixth and seventh torpedoes went past. Two hours later a submarine fired the eighth and ninth torpedoes and one of them struck forward and the other aft.

The members made the journey yesterday evening. The I. O. O. F. quartet, Boy Denny, Maurice Peckham, James Guyette and Willard Baptiste was present and gave a musical program. James Guyette gave a piano solo and the entire company joined in a number of songs.

Before supper progressive horse shoe pitching was indulged in and developed a number of experts. After the horse shoe games and the musical program Mrs. Reeve announced supper which was thoroughly enjoyed. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. John J. Reeve and Mrs. T. A. Ebrey.

Those present were: C. E. Seymour, Charles Goodey, Ernest Carter, Judge W. E. Thompson, William Moore, Starfield Baldwin, R. E. Crabtree, William Kitten, Edward Boston, John Schofield, Walter Patterson, J. K. Long, J. J. Paschall, Herman Ellis, A. L. Conlee, Clint Moore, C. J. Roberts, C. A. PAPER MAKERS STRIKE
New York, July 24.—Officials of the International Paper Company expressed the fear today that a strike of paper makers, firemen and other workers which has enforced closing of the Glens Falls, Fort Edward, Cohasset, Ticonderoga, N. Y., and Rufford, Me., mills may spread to the fifteen other plants of the corporation, tying up the entire industry. Such a development, it was stated, would seriously curtail the operations of a large to be about to marry a very rich American woman who is now in Switzerland according to the Geneva despatch to the Temps. The despatch says the former king now financially embarrassed counts on this marriage to obtain means for financing a campaign for restoration of his throne. The Temps correspondent, who is at Constantine, is therefore working earnestly to bring the marriage about and that his brother-in-law, the German emperor, supports the plan.

HEAVY QUOTAS FOR AUGUST.
The local board yesterday received the following telegram transmitted from the office of the provost marshal general, indicating that August calls for troops will be large. On this account all local boards have been instructed to refuse releases to the navy, marine corps or emergency fleet to men who are in class 1. This order is only to be modified if it is certain there will be enough men in class 1 to fill the August requirements.

Chairman Weir stated yesterday that he understood the government plans to call to the colors a total of 500,000 during the months of August, September and October. As the number of men in class 1 here in Morgan county has been about 8 per cent above the average it is believed that the quota for the county can be filled from the class 1 men of the 1918 registrants. Even should the quota run larger than the number of men available it is not likely that the board will be asked to send men from other than class 1. The indications are, in Mr. Weir's opinion, that if the government cannot secure enough men from class 1 that changes will be made in the selective service law which will either permit the taking of men younger than 21 or beyond 31, with the purpose in view of using unmarried men without dependents in the army work. The government purpose is to take due regard of the financial question before the use of men with dependents presents the possibility of a much heavier pension roll.

The telegram from the provost marshal general reads thus: Miller Weir, Exemption Board Morgan county, Jacksonville, Ill.

Provost marshal general writes that August calls on Illinois will be large. He instructs us to advise all local boards to refuse releases to the navy, marine corps, or emergency fleet to men who are in class 1.

Medical advisory boards are directed to speed up the examination of registrants as yet unexamined. The maximum possible expedition by all agencies operating in classification, re-classification or examination is absolutely imperative.

Dickson, Adjutant General.

The local board has received revised instructions with reference to a number of colored men to be furnished from Morgan county during the period from August 1 to 5. The requirement for this county has been reduced to 49.

Will Examine More Men Monday.
The list of registrants summoned to appear next Monday, July 29, for physical examination is as follows: The examination will be held at 9 a. m. at the court house:

Clarence P. Adams, Jacksonville.
Harvey N. Franz, Jacksonville.
Chester G. Jumper, Shiloh.
George H. Allen, Jacksonville.
Percy B. DeVore, Woodson.

Elden E. Gruber, Jacksonville.
Archie L. Sentenly, Meredosia.
Ray E. Ore, Arenzville.

Albert Collins, who is a limited service man in Class 4, on the grounds of his diploma, has the opportunity of special induction with the quartermaster's corps, by direction of the provost marshal general. Mr. Collins has waived claim of deferred classification and left yesterday for Camp Meigs, Washington, D. C., where he will take training for his work.

THRESHING WORK IN PROGRESS
As previously stated, threshing work is progressing very rapidly in Morgan county and threshing outfits are busy in all parts of the county. A number of elevators have practically all the grain they can store and are now awaiting the arrival of more cars. Practically all wheat is grading No. 2. In fact, most of the samples reaching the elevators, and especially of hard wheat, is weighing 60 and 61 pounds, instead of the 58 required for the No. 2 grade.

Prices offered continue to vary. The Jacksonville price and that in the east part of the county being $2.95 at the elevator, while Joy Prairie is paying $2.60 and Chapin the high figure of $2.15 and $2.25. Locally Lewis & Clary have on hand at least 15,000 bushels. While they are not receiving cars as rapidly as they wish, they still are getting their share.

CASE TRACTOR IS USED IN FIELD
Company of Farmers Witnessed Demonstration at Groves Farm Wednesday—Is Powerful Machine.

A large company of farmers visited the field on the Groves farm northwest of the city yesterday to see the Case tractor demonstration given under direction of Charles M. Strawn and Frank Todd. The Case tractor pulled a three bottom plow and disc with ease. Several of the men operated the tractor and found it easy to handle. There is plenty of reserve power so that the big plows will readily go thru any kind of soil known to this locality. In these days when deep plowing is especially advocated the tractor finds special favor.

Another demonstration will be given today. Special demonstrations can be arranged for at any time by communicating with Mr. Strawn or Mr. Todd.

WILL SEE WAR EFFORTS OF AMERICA FILMED

Fighters in France, Farmers in Furrows, and Other War Workers to Be Screened in Combined Government Exhibits.

America's war efforts at home and abroad—soldiers and sailors at the fighting front, in camp and abroad ship, farmers striving for increased crops in this country, and hosts of others engaged in backing up the fighters—are to be shown in motion pictures at State fairs in 23 states this summer and fall in connection with the combined exhibits of the Government.

The military, naval and food production and conservation films are to be supplemented by beautiful views of America as seen in the national parks, and by pictures showing reclamation of arid lands, highway construction and other governmental activities.

The pictures with the combined Government exhibits, will be shown from August 9th to August 26th, 1918 at the Illinois State Fair. Admission to the Government displays will be free.

Five groups of the films will travel on many fair circuits, and beginning in August will be shown from New York to California.

Food Growing Films Numerous
Because of the efforts of the Department of Agriculture to stimulate increased food production, probably more films will be shown on this subject than any other. Pictures have been taken in many parts of the country to illustrate improved methods of agriculture, stock raising, home economics and forest management. The best and most appropriate of these will be shown at the fairs.

The Washington horse show, showing types of pure bred horses from the fast trotter to the draft animal was filmed at the capital. Pictures of boys' pig clubs, taken in Louisiana, are expected to interest every farm youth, for they show the steps in forming one of Uncle Sam's pig clubs, and how a boy earned the prize of his first pig, which later took a blue ribbon.

Brought money enough to start a real herd of prize hogs. Poultry fanciers are expected to find interest in films of the Government poultry farm in Maryland.

Forest Work Portrayed.
To the forests of the Northwest the Government cameras went to get pictures of the terrible forest fires that yearly destroy thousands of acres of valuable timber and sometimes wipe out whole townships. In this film are seen the work of the forest rangers and the spectacle of an entire community going out to fight a fire.

Other forests are shown the cutting of timber, when the loggers plus the sent down the mountain flumes to cut into railroad ties, mine props and lumber, and during the grazing season, when thousands of sheep and cattle are turned into these Government ranges to produce food, wool and leather.

Botanizing on Screen.
The building and repair of public roads of various types have been photographed in many different States. The whole process, beginning with the quarry where the rock is tested to determine its strength and durability, is shown. Then come the crushing and further testing of the rock, the use of cement and macadam, the grading and filling of the road, and the final polishing off with the big steam roller.

American manufacture of wool especially timely during the war and process of grading and sorting wool after it reaches warehouses, then the combing and winding until it is ready to be made into different grades of woolen cloth, also are covered in film. Other features of improved and scientific farming treated include the building of silos, the proper handling of poultry, and the production of scientifically pure milk.

BIDS FOR COAL
Sealed bids for furnishing 3-inch screened lump coal for all county purposes for one year, will be received at the office of the county clerk until Saturday, July 27, at 11:00 a. m.

All coal to be weighed over the city scales except that delivered at the County Farm, which is to be weighed at the farm.

The successful bidder must enter into a contract and give bond for the faithful performance of the same. The County Board of Commissioners reserve the right to reject any and all bids.

Dated this fifteenth day of July, A. D. 1918.
C. A. Boruff,
County Clerk.

AGED MAN NEEDS MEDICAL CARE
B. S. Thomas has been for a number of days at the Park House in this city, now conducted by Mrs. Davenport. Relatives of the old man have paid his board for a week but are said to have failed to furnish him necessary medical attention. Mr. Thomas is about 65 years of age and is a carpenter and has done some farm work. Mrs. Davenport has done all she can to take care of the man but, as stated, he needs more constant attention than she is able to give. The case has been called to the attention of State's Attorney Robinson, who will at once take it up with the known relatives of Mr. Thomas, living in the vicinity of Franklin and Waverly, and they will be asked to take care of the sick man.

BOARD'S RECORD WORK COMPLIMENTED

The Morgan county local board has several times been complimented upon the excellence of the system of records followed. It seems that when the papers which accompany men sent to the training camp are in the order and condition intended by the government regulations that the men are handled with far greater ease by the officers at the camps. The following letter of appreciation has just been received by the local board from an officer at Camp Taylor:

60th Co., 15th Tr. Bn.
Camp Zachary Taylor, Ky.
July 23, 1918.

Local Board, Morgan County, Ill., Jacksonville, Ill.

Gentlemen:
I take this opportunity of writing you regarding the men and their papers, that you sent down in your quotas since being in Camp Zachary Taylor, but I must say that Morgan county boys are deserving of much credit. The men were obedient and willing. They have taken up the work and drill in a most satisfactory manner.

I wish to thank you for the order in which you arranged your records of the men. They were arranged alphabetically correct, and that saved us a vast amount of work. I look forward to receiving more of your men.

Yours very truly,
Harry A. Stein,
1st Lieut. Inf. R. C.
Commanding Company.

SOME FACTS FOR THE FARMER

The following "Plain facts for the well meaning, up-to-date farmer" have been suggested by Charles T. Mackness. He evidently makes special reference to the preparation of the seed bed for next year's wheat crop, and has some worth while sentiments on patriotism.

"Prepare your soil for seed before you sow, and to prepare it means work. Plow deep, at least one or two inches deeper than formerly. Do not fool yourself. Obtain a rule and measure. Use enough power to plow at least 7 inches deep.

"Then roll the ground with a corrugated roller so as to sub-pack. This gives the ground a chance to hold the moisture which is very essential in nearly every season. We must increase our wheat acreage at least 25 per cent, and must increase the crop per acre 25 per cent. This will give us food to supply the world.

"Why not forget the dollar and help the other fellow so we can be assured of his and our own success? We have the greatest country in the world and the best government known to mankind. By all working together we will get what is coming to us. Uncle Sam says that we need wheat, and more wheat. Therefore, it is up to us to do our very best willingly and not wait to be forced. We, as a people, do not want to make it compulsory to do right. We wish to do it because we know it is right.

"All the warring countries are our neighbors and we as people are willing to help our neighbor. We ought to be only too glad to push the plow deep into our rich soil so we can be in a position to feed the world and feed it well, forgetting the small self-interests or a few dollars gained by the other fellow's misfortune."

Emphatically Asserts Worn Out, Lagging Men Can Quickly Become Vigorous and Full of Ambition

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

Don't blame the man who is perpetually tired; his blood needs more red corpuscles and his brain and nerves are craving for food.

Given the right kind of medicine any tired-out, inactive, lagging fellow can quickly be made into a real, live, energetic and even ambitious man.

So says a student of the nervous system who advises all men and women who feel worn out and who find it hard to get up ambition enough to take a regular job to get a package of Bio-feren at any drug.

This is the new discovery that pharmacists are recommending because it is not expensive and speedily puts vigor and ambition into people who despaired of ever amounting to anything in life.

People whose nerves have been wrecked by too rapid living, too much tobacco or alcohol, have regained their old-time confidence and energy in less than two weeks. No matter from what cause your nerves went back on you; no matter how run down, nervous or tired out you are, get an original package of Bio-feren at once. Take two tablets after each meal and one before bed-time—seven a day for seven days—then one after each meal till all are gone.

Then if you still lack ambition; if your nerves are not steady and you haven't the energy that red-blooded, keen-minded men possess, your purchase money will be gladly returned.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren, it is printed on every package. Here it is: Lecithin; Calcium Glycophosphate; Iron Peptonate; Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Glycerin; Capsicum.

J. C. WALSH DESCRIBES TRIP THRU SOUTH

Local Man Gives Interesting Account of Recent Journey from Camp Taylor, Ky., to Camp Beauregard, La.—Number of Other Morgan County Men Transferred to Louisiana Camp.

The following letter was written by J. C. Walsh, who left with the Morgan county contingent June 28 for Camp Taylor. He was recently transferred, along with nine other Morgan county men, to Camp Beauregard, Alexandria, La., where he is to serve as a specialty electrician. The letter was addressed to the Walsh Electric Co. of this city, which is now being conducted by Mrs. Walsh.

We are now in Dixie—Camp Beauregard, Alexandria, La. I am sending a copy of my diary but as yet do not know my address and so Jim Ring hasn't anything on us at Camp Taylor. We were not allowed our hats when going to mess hall, so did not take them here and the sun sure beats down on us.

Our quarters are closer to the ground than in Camp Taylor. We live in a tent 18 feet by 18 feet. The side walls are 4 feet high and made of wire screening, with outer walls of canvas. We now have the walls turned up, taking the air, which is sultry and close. There was a call just now for engineers to fall out in front. We are specialty men, or tradesmen. I was the only one of the ten Morgan county men given anything but the infantry, which means carry a gun. I think we will change our barracks in a short time as all the engineers are called to bring their cases and bags. This is one great job. You never know when you start out how far you are going and it certainly seemed a joke to travel 36 hours and not know where you were going. I'm going to drop a card to Brother George Richardson, as we are about 100 miles apart now.

Soldiers Have Real Guns. An aeroplane is continually flying over our tent and the sight has become so common that we do not go out to look any more. In this tent all the soldiers have real guns and powder, something which was not the case at Camp Taylor.

Well, as I have rewritten my diary and as it is so hot I'm going to close this letter. Goodbye, with lots of love and sunshine.

P. S. You might turn this diary over to the Journal and have it published as it will be interesting to many there in Jacksonville.

Diary of Trip Thru Dixie. Itinerary—Camp Taylor to Jackson, Miss., via Ill. Central; Jackson, Miss., to Monroe, La., via Alabama & Vicksburg; Vicksburg across the Mississippi river on ferry; Marion to Camp Beauregard, Alexandria, La., via Missouri Pacific.

On Thursday, July 18, we were ordered to transfer. We emptied straw ticks at horse barn and found Roy Goodrick, stable boy, on the job. Left at 7 o'clock and hiked 3 miles with baggage weighing 55 lbs. to R. R. loop. At 1:45 p. m. boarded a train made up of 13 coaches and baggage coach in center. We had no dinner at this time, but we always have three square meals a day, although meals are somewhat irregular.

First stop was made at Kosmosdale Cement Works, West Point, Ky. This is a heavy artillery camp, all tents, no barracks buildings. This region is very hilly and the Ill. Central track is about 50 feet above West Point, built upon iron trestles.

Muldraugh, 2:30 p. m. Were ordered to get out mess kits and eat dinner of cold canned beans, cold canned tomatoes, cold canned corned beef, hot coffee. We joined lines from the rear and marched thru the coach and you can imagine us carrying hot coffee and swinging into tunnel around sharp curve. There are acres of truck gardens in this vicinity.

Murray Appointed Orderly. Springfield, 3:50. Private Murray appointed orderly in our coach.

Central City, Ky. Arrived at 4:55, left 5:05. Our train is third troop train, passing thru above town, headed southwest. Now we are 138 miles from Kentucky and Tennessee line and will cross at Fulton.

Nortonville, "close to home." Crossed L. E. tracks.

St. Charles, 5:45 p. m. Retreat time in Camp Taylor. Dawson Springs, 6 p. m. A soldier got off the train and hiked thru woods and was captured in 20 seconds. The penalty is at least two years in the pen and maybe death. This town is a summer resort and there were lots of visitors at the depot.

Kuitawa. Crossed river said to be the Cumberland. Corn in this vicinity is only 14 inches high. There are some cowpeas and tobacco growing and all plowing is done with one mule, plow and negro. Population here is mostly colored people.

Calvert. All houses here are three or four rooms. As far as you can see natives are waving and cheering. We haven't seen any window shades in last 150 miles, but a service flag instead. All buildings which are painted are a prominent yellow and some few are white-washed. Old style rail fences are everywhere to be seen.

Canteen Girls Meet Train. Paducah, Ky., 7:30. American Red Cross canteen girls served large ice cream cones. The citizens brought us postals and stamps which were much appreciated by the boys. 8:25 p. m. Edward Graubner, my seat "buddy," lighted the pinch lights on the coach as we have no train men, nothing but detectives and officers of the N. A. Orderly Murray called for singers, declaring that those who would not sing should get off and walk.

Friday, July 18, 2:30 a. m. Arrived in Memphis, Tenn. This city is six miles from south border of state, so you see we crossed ed Tennessee in the dark. 5:30 a. m., first call for breakfast; same old mess.

Durant, 7:45. Train stopped in yards where negroes were loading ties on flat cars. Some of the soldiers alighted and started crap game on cars. The negroes were all broke but said, "Oh, go on with the game, for as long as you use the car we won't have to work."

Canton, Miss. 8:55. Saw Arizona R. R. locomotive which carried an oil tank instead of a tender for coal, probably an oil burner but a steam locomotive. All the boys fell out for a rest and a hike. We marched about 2 blocks on an asphalt pavement and bought all the eatables in town. We saw one cotton gin but it was dismantled.

Madison, 9:55. We made no stop here but saw a woman pointing to service flag in her window containing five service stars.

Jackson, Miss. (Capital). We spent two hours here. We marched up to the old capitol and then to the new one and back to the depot, a hike of eight blocks. In the capitol grounds is a beautiful statue dedicated to "Our Mothers."

Clinton, 12:15. We are now 34 miles from Vicksburg, so we must be on our way to Alexandria. We knew if we went east from Jackson we would be on our way to Camp Shelby, but if we went west we knew it was to be Camp Beauregard in Louisiana.

Edwards, 12:42. We made no stop here. All houses in sight are small but the families seem to be large. We are now coming into the Vicksburg National cemetery, running parallel to an asphalt road and the scenery is beautiful.

More Canteen Girls. Vicksburg, 1:30. We were met at the station by A. R. C. canteen girls, who gave each soldier cigarettes, matches, souvenir postal, a dish of ice cream and a cup of ice water. In return we gave three cheers for the canteen girls. Our next move was to ferry across the "Father of Waters." As there is no bridge at this point our engine backed four coaches on each of two parallel tracks on Steamboat Pelican and we then crossed to the Louisiana side. The Queen and Crescent boats took the other five cars across. At 3:30 we started on our way and at 4 stopped to repair our engine and also got our noonday mess. (A little late).

Holly Wood, 5:45. This is a large lumber camp. All the dwellings contain about two rooms and are all built just alike. There is a general merchandise store 100 yards from the depot. We were on a siding waiting for our mail and so went over and cleaned up the store of eatables. There are no growing crops in this vicinity, nothing but forests. I have not noticed the heat here at all. We passed thru tented lumber camps and the laborers seem to be mostly negroes. The natives were all barefoot, young and old, and I could probably have sold my extra pair of shoes without any trouble.

The First Wet Territory. Mounds, 4:10. This was the first indication of wet territory but the boys were ordered back to the train. In order not to abuse a privilege we did not ask to go to the stores at this station. We have been allowed to get off at each station lately. Timber is thick here, with many large palms growing all about, similar to the ones we cultivate at home. Twenty-five foot telegraph poles on the right of way here are lettered about six feet below the cross arms, otherwise they would not be readable as the weeds are 12 to 15 feet high. This is a swampy region and pond lilies grow in the greatest abundance. The blossoms are 6 inches in diameter and the leaves 18 inches long.

Quebec, 4:50. Must be in Canada. Waverly, 5 p. m. "Close to home again." This is a logging camp and the river in creek is filled with logs and negroes.

Monroe, 7 p. m. Here a changed railroad again, having caught up with the other troop train. The boys bought fine Alberta peaches four for 5c. Watermelons were from 30c to 60c each, they charge more for them right where they grow than they do up in Illinois.

7:30 p. m. On the Missouri Pacific going south we saw acres and acres of castor beans planted in rows. Assigned to Electrical Work. We arrived at Alexandria, La., at 12:35 a. m. and marched thru inspection tent, then to mess. We had dried beef, apple butter, bread and coffee. We then went to the service quarters. The rest of the men were up in the infantry division while I was given selected or specialties in electrical work.

An electric lineman from Springfield, Ill., was also put in this division. We had no sleep at all and were very tired as our trip covered a period of 45 hours. We were assigned to tents, each containing five folding cots. The arrangement is much better than barracks but the sanitation of the camp is nothing compared with Camp Taylor. While making our beds and hanging out our wash we were greatly amused by an aviator in a biplane. He made long dips, curves, spirals and did various other "stunts." We have two goats at the rear of our tent.

I will have to watch my clothes until they dry. There is a fine breeze but it contains lots of sand. There was a small rain here last week, the first one in weeks. The boys who were placed in the infantry division are John Mandeville, Edward Graubner, William Strubbe, Harry Franz, Frank Calloway and William Spahnower.

Ice tea glasses in hand and other styles. Silver and glass spoons. Bassett's Jewelry Store. Elmer Henderson returned yesterday to St. Louis, after the expiration of his five days' furlough. If he has any kind of an opportunity he will surely be heard from in the conflict.

BAKER POSTPONES BASEBALL DECISION

WASHINGTON, July 24.—Secretary Baker late today postponed until tomorrow his decision on extending the effective time of the work or fight regulations as they apply to professional baseball players. The war secretary said he would consider a brief submitted by the National Baseball Commission and General Crowder's recommendations tonight and expected to announce his decision in the morning.

National and American League officials and club owners who were here today to complete and present to General Crowder the brief in the case were hopeful that Mr. Baker would extend the time of putting the order into effect until the end of the season. They based their hope on the secretary's previous statement that it was not certain that the baseball industry would be disrupted and that they had presented facts that would convince him that professional leagues would have to suspend unless the order is modified.

Pirates Take First

Brooklyn, July 24.—Pittsburgh took the first game of the series from Brooklyn today by a score of 3 to 1, mainly thru Comstock's effectiveness and Caton's wonderful playing at short. The latter accepted eleven chances, most of them in deep field.

Score by innings: Pittsburgh . 000 001 110—3 9 0 Brooklyn . 010 000 000—1 6 1 Comstock and Schmidt; Marquard and Miller.

FOR RED CROSS SERVICE.

The Nebraska State Journal, of Lincoln, for May 19, 1918, had pictures of six Nebraska women chosen for Red Cross service abroad. Among them was Miss Ella King Morrison, of whom the paper said:

"Miss Ella King Morrison, of Wayne, Nebraska, was graduated from the Lincoln high school, attended the State University and spent a year in Dresden, Germany, studying German and music. Her Red Cross work for two years has been chiefly bandage making. She is supervisor of the surgical dressing department for Fisher and has instructed classes in various parts of the state, establishing about fifteen work rooms. She is a sister of Mrs. G. O. Smith, of Lincoln, and has made her home with her sister, Mrs. J. Woodward Jones, of Wayne, since the death of her mother."

Miss Morrison is now in Jacksonville with her sister, Mrs. Smith, visiting their aunt, Mrs. Enslay Moore. Miss Morrison is a daughter of Jno. G. Morrison, formerly of Jacksonville.

The Lincoln paper also gives the picture of Mrs. M. B. Bryan and says of her in the same connection: "Mrs. Silas M. Bryan, who was formerly Miss Fanny Schibsky, is the daughter of M. Schibsky, of Minneapolis, Minn. She received her education at the University of Minnesota and afterwards specialized in art."

Capt. Bryan (whose picture is also given), the son of ex-Mayor and Mrs. Charles Bryan, who was commissioned at the close of the first reserve officers' training camp at Ft. Snelling, is an instructor in the fourth officers' training camp which opened at Camp Dodge, May 15. Captain and Mrs. Bryan, after a short trip to Chicago, went to Camp Dodge, and are at home there at present.

This Captain Bryan is the son of Charles Bryan, brother of William Jennings Bryan, and Charles is known to the citizens of Jacksonville.

WOMAN'S DANGER PERIOD

The period between forty-five and fifty-five years of age is said to be a crisis or danger period in a woman's life which tests her for her fitness to continue in the race. It is then that she suffers from such annoying symptoms as head-flashes, nervousness, headaches, "the blues," or dread of impending evil, or some dormant disease in the system becomes active. When a woman is passing through this crisis there is one tried and true remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which after forty years of success is now considered the standard remedy for woman's ailments. —Ady.

CORN GIVEN ADVANCE

CHICAGO, July 24.—Fear of abnormal temperatures brought about a sharp advance in corn values today notwithstanding transient setbacks due to peace talk. The market closed unsettled 2 1/2 to 3 1/2¢ higher with August $1.55 1/4@1.55 1/2 and September $1.56 1/4 to 1.56 1/2. Oats gained 3/4 to 1 1/4¢ and provisions
1 1/2 to 2 1/2¢.

Reports of frosts in Canada and predictions for a drop to 35 in North Dakota overcame the effect of the tentative peace terms said to have been suggested by Germany. The peace talk was dismissed on the ground chiefly that the new terms were but little different from others which had been already rejected.

Oats fluctuated with corn.
Rains in Canada which for a time gave some advantage to the bears were more than offset later by cold weather advices from the northwest. Strength in hogs and corn made provisions ascend.

ATTORNEY VAUGHT INJURED IN RUNAWAY

Suffers Fracture of Arm and Leg in Accident on Michigan Fruit Farm—In Hospital at Traverse City, Mich.

L. O. Vaught, a prominent member of the Morgan county bar, received a compound fracture of the right forearm, two fractures of the left leg below the knee and severe cuts on the forehead and other bruises in a runaway, which occurred on his Michigan fruit farm Monday about noon.

Word was received of the accident in the city yesterday by M. F. Dunlap from his son, R. I. Dunlap, who is spending a few days in Michigan.

According to the letter received by Mr. Dunlap, Mr. Vaught was driving a one-horse wagon down a steep hill on his fruit farm, near Old Mission, Mich. The horse became frightened and ran away. Mr. Vaught was thrown from the vehicle with the result above indicated.

When found by his farm manager, Floyd Wilbur, a short time after the accident, Mr. Vaught was unconscious. He was cared for by Mrs. Vaught, Mrs. Shambaugh, Mrs. Wilbur, Mrs. Marshall, Dr. Ames and Dr. Rammelkamp, until the arrival of a surgeon from Traverse City, which is eighteen miles distant.

Later in the afternoon the injured man was taken by ambulance to Traverse City, where he was placed in Central hospital. He was accompanied on the trip by Mrs. Vaught and Mr. Dunlap.

Five X-ray pictures were taken which revealed the fractures. There also was a deep cut on the left side of the head and minor cuts and bruises. Mr. Vaught also suffered considerably from shock. Despite intense suffering he bore up courageously and Mr. Dunlap said that at the time of writing he was resting fairly well.

The news of Mr. Vaught's misfortune will be received with regret by his many friends in Jacksonville. He has always been an active outdoor man and his greatest delight was in camping out in and tramping thru the woods. The accident will result in confining him indoors for many weeks and will be doubly hard because of his former activity.

AN OLD WEAPON.

While Claude Sumpter was digging worms near the brook on South East street, he unearthed an old Colt's revolver, minus the stock. Of course it was rusted and worthless, except as a curiosity, which Dr. R. R. Buckthorpe might like to add to his interesting and valuable collection of weapons.

To the writer the pistol brought up many early recollections. When the pistol was first placed on the market it seemed as if the perfection of a pocket weapon had been reached. It would shoot accurately, carrying a long distance and was a superior article. The factory in which it was made was a famous affair and at one time in the 1850's burned without insurance. The Aetna Fire Insurance Company had a huge lithograph made of the building in flames and sent one to almost every agent in the country and for many years it was a familiar object. In loading the revolver the powder was poured into the chamber barrels from a flask and then the bullets, carefully greased, were pressed home and the cap placed on the nipple. The owner of one was proud of his possession and in the civil war many a soldier met his fate from a bullet fired from a Colt.

SHOWING OF NEW FALL SUITS AND COATS AT HERMAN'S.

DR. POST BUSILY OCCUPIED.

Writing to a friend in the city Rev. R. O. Post, D. D., says he has found things very pleasant in his former home at Conneaut, Ohio. At first he had charge of all Red Cross work which the arduous was pleasant and occupied his time completely.

Then the pastor of the Congregational church wanted to go to France on Y. M. C. A. work and they wanted a minister to take his place. The church is a large one, cost $210,000, has a membership of more than 500 and a Sunday school enrollment of more than 800. To take charge of such a great parish was more than the good doctor cared to undertake and very reasonably declined. Then they made a unanimous compromise with him simply employed him to preach Sunday mornings, lead the prayer meetings and bury the dead. He entered enthusiastically on that work and is happy in it and the church is very fortunate in securing such a minister during the absence of their pastor.
